DIGITAL MARKETING AGENCY OF THE YEAR

Corrie D Marketing

Corrie D Marketing is an Ayrshire-based digital marketing agency that specialises in online advertising campaigns and Wordpress websites. The clientele range from local councils and the NHS to SME's throughout Scotland. Online advertising campaigns are provided fully managed on a hassle-free DFY (done for you) basis and includes market leading services such as Google Search PPC, Google display ads, YouTube video ads and video production, social media marketing, and more. These campaigns are fully managed by Corrie D Marketing to help business owners identify their exact target audiences and keywords, and help to acquire new customers, whilst encouraging repeat business from regular clients.

The judges were impressed by the comprehensive services on offer at Corrie D Marketing, who are dedicated to covering every aspect of digital marketing so their clients don't have to. From creating campaigns, keyword analysis and copywriting, to professional graphic design and PR press releases, owner and founder Corrie-Dee Whaite has 30 years of experience in the marketing sector and is committed to delivering tangible results for her clients. The marketing expert heads a team of handpicked professionals, who are all fully qualified within their specific fields and collaborate to provide unbeatable services for affordable prices.
